

Law and Liberal Arts Minor (Law)

The minor in Law and Liberal Arts is intended for all students who are interested in attending law school after graduation, or who are interested in preparing for careers related to the judicial system and the law. The minor consists of eighteen credits that are designed to focus on the acquisition of skills and substantive knowledge in five areas: (1) advanced writing, (2) public speaking, (3) American public law and judicial process, (4) critical thinking, (5) formal logic.

For the Minor in Law and Liberal Arts, students must complete a minimum of 18 credits with a grade of “C” or better.

Required Course (3 credits)

Prescribed Course: Phil 012 (GQ)

Additional Courses (15 credits)

Advanced Writing:

(3 Credits) Engl 421, 471; PL SC 470W or CAS 450W

Public Speaking:

(3 Credits) CAS 213, 216, 250 or 321

American Public Law/Judicial Process:

(3 Credits) Comm 403, L St 470, PL SC 403, 471 or 472

Constitutional Law/Hist:

(3 Credits) Hist 449, 450; PL SC 473, 474, 475
 (Please see UG office for substitutions)

Political Philosophies/Theories:

(3 Credits) Phil 105, 108(GH), 408, 408W; PL SC 431, 432 or Soc 405

If you are in PL SC or INTPL major only 1 PL SC course will be used.

When electing to be a minor, the student should have junior (5th semester) standing. To apply for the minor or to inquire about course substitutions go to 202 Pond Lab.